

PRODUCTION TEAM LEADER

ROLE OUTLINE

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to...

- Plan, lead, execute and control daily manufacturing processes and resources that ensures a safe working environment and delivers products OTIF to the production plan, meeting all quality, regulatory and legislative requirements.
- Plan, lead, execute and control CI and Lean Manufacturing activities to ensure the facility meets 5S / housekeeping standards and cost down / productivity (efficiency and utilization) improvements are delivered against targets.
- Plan, lead, execute and control short and long term manufacturing strategic objectives and KPI's.
- Plan, lead, execute and control day to day resource requirements including recruitment, appraisals, development and disciplinary activities to ensure the correct levels are available with the required skills sets to meet the needs of the business.
- Plan, lead, execute and control daily team meetings and WAR's ensuring all manufacturing data is captured and analyzed against targets, acting on adverse variation to standards.
- Plan, lead, execute and control standard work ensuring it is documented, available and adhered to by the manufacturing team.
- Plan, lead, execute and control manufacturing activities to adhere to the company's Business Management and Health & Safety systems.
- Plan, lead, execute and control manufacturing spend within the budget and spend limits acting on adverse variances
- Supporting the drive and culture to create a world class manufacturing environment.